Halloween Dress Code

Costumes must still follow GSDS Dress Code standards.

Nothing that covers the face (NO face paint, NO masks)

NO inflatable costumes.

No long, dragging elements in the costume. (Capes that drape the floor, long tails, etc.)

Costumes cannot impede safe hallway movement or prevent a student from normal daily activities (sitting, carrying their own belongings, etc.)

Use common sense, and if in doubt, DON'T WEAR IT!

If your costume does not meet the criteria listed above, you will be asked to change!

Anyone thinking of trying out for the GS girls middle school team is welcome to come shoot around and learn about what will be expected this year. You must have a physical uploaded to Dragonfly to play.

Tryouts will be the following week.

Knight Of The Week:

Briana Baker

Briana is a dedicated and hardworking student who has quickly become a valued member of the Gray Stone Day School community. Although new to our school, she consistently exemplifies the Gray Stone Way through her respect for others and her strong work ethic in every class. Briana always puts forth her best effort and is a kind, supportive friend to her peers. She is a bright and talented student whose abilities will be showcased in the upcoming school production of The Little Mermaid, Jr.
